Order to Show Cause.

In the Superior Court of the County of Sonoma, State of California.
In the matter of the Estate of James McGinty, deceased.
Order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made.

DANIEL FRIDEGER, THE ADMINistrator of the Estate of James McGinty, deceased, having filed his petition herein, duly verified, praying for an order of sale of the real estate of said decedent, for the purposes therein set forth, it is therefore ordered by the Judge of said Court, that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased appear before the said Superior Court on MONDAY, the 23d day of DECEMBER 1895, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court-room of said Superior Court, in Department One thereof, at the Court House, in the City of Santa Rosa, in the County of Sonoma, State of California, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of the said deceased, at either public or private sale, as shall be necessary; and that a copy of this order be published at least four successive weeks in THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE, a newspaper printed and published in said county.

A SPECIFIC —FOR—
La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs,
AND LUNG TROUBLES,
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."—EMILY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.

HABITS OF THE MANATEE.

A Harmless Monster That Feeds Under Water on Grasses.

The manatee belongs to a mammalian order called sirenia, or seacows, which contains only three species—our manatee, that of west Africa and the dugong of Australia. As its clumsy form suggests, it is an animal of quiet and even sluggish habits, entirely harmless and easily taken when once its haunts are known. When at home, its food consists of tender aquatic plants and grasses, always eaten under water, and its presence is generally revealed by the bits of broken stems and grass which escape and float to the surface above where it is feeding.

In captivity it feeds on cabbage, lettuce, the leaves of the canna, celery tops, watercress, spinach, and also certain kinds of ocean seaweed. In the St. Lucie river its favorite food is a luxuriant, trailing aquatic grass, called manatee grass, in which the manatee finds not only good food, but good hiding places from its human enemies.

The bones of this animal are massive, solid and quite heavy (some hunters will tell you its bones are "solid ivory"), and its skin is as thick and tough as that of a hippopotamus. I have seen very good canes made of strips of manatee skin, twisted like a lightning rod and dried. Its flesh is very good, and, to me, it tastes quite like lean pork. Curiously enough, this strange creature actually sheds its outer skin every year, as does a serpent. The living specimens that from time to time have been captured and kept for exhibition in Demerara, Philadelphia, New York and London have in all cases been of small or medium size, varying in length from 4 to 7 feet. The one which was shown in the Central park menagerie in 1873 was 6 feet 9½ inches in length and weighed 450 pounds.—W. T. Hornaday in St. Nicholas.

A FAMOUS MAN'S MOTHER.

Thomas Wentworth Higginson's Beautiful Tribute to His Mother.

I trace to my mother's direct influence three leading motives of her youngest son's life—the love of personal liberty, of religious freedom and of the equality of the sexes—writes Thomas Wentworth Higginson in The Ladies' Home Journal. As to the more subtle and intimate influences, they ordinarily came by contact, not by preaching. She always maintained that the younger children of a large family had a much better chance for development than the elder because they had more freedom to develop themselves. With her elder children, she always said, overconscientiousness almost bore her to the earth. She felt personally responsible for every childish fault.

She had been reared in the school of Locke, which regarded the human soul as blank paper, on which parents and teachers did all the writing. But her children were of strong and varied individuality, and she learned in time to study the temperament of each and be patient with its unfolding. Her whole formula of training consisted in these three things: To retain the entire confidence of the child, to do whatever seemed wisest and to be patient. Her trust in Providence was absolute and controlling, as was her sense of the personality of the Deity.

Most valuable of all her traits to her children next to her quality of sunshine was probably her absolute rectitude, the elevation of her whole tone, the complete unworldliness, so that no child of hers ever heard her refer to any standard but the highest. With all this was combined the conscientious accuracy in affairs, the exquisite nicety in all household details, which belong to the best of the traditions of New England.

The Contagion of Ideas.

Affirmation, pure and simple, without reasoning and without proof, is one of the surest means of planting an idea in the popular mind. The more concise it is, the more free from every appearance of proofs and demonstration, the more authority it has. The religious books and the codes of all ages have always proceeded by simple affirmation. Statesmen called upon to defend any political cause and manufacturers advertising their goods know what it is worth. Yet it has no real influence, except it is constantly repeated and so far as possible in the same terms. Napoleon said that repetition was the only serious figure in rhetoric. By repetition an affirmation is incrusted in the minds of hearers till they at last accept it as a demonstrated truth. What is called the current of opinion is formed, and then the potent mechanism of contagion comes in. Ideas that have reached a certain stage, in fact, possess a contagious power as intense as that of microbes. Not fear and courage only are contagious. Ideas are, too, on condition that they are repeated often enough.

When the mechanism of contagion has begun to work, the idea enters upon the phase that leads to success. Opinion, which repelled it at first, ends by tolerating and then accepting it. The idea henceforward gains a penetrating and subtle force which sends it onward, while at the same time creating a sort of special atmosphere, a general way of thinking.—Popular Science Monthly.

One of the Three.

A bold and fearless statement was made in this column a few days ago touching beauty. It was put forth that there were only three actresses on earth who could lay an honest claim to beauty. "Clara M." writes that her curiosity has been aroused and wants to know who the three are. Now, it would be very ungallant to say. The statement has all the actresses in the world guessing, and until the names of the three are mentioned each of our footlight favorites will believe she is one of them. Why spoil their fun? What is the use of calling names to make people feel injured and slighted and misunderstood? I do not doubt that Miss Clara M., if she be an actress, could lay an honest claim to recognition as one of the three. —New York Press.

LINCOLN'S LOVEMAKING.

Abe Encountered His Political Rival While Addressing Miss Todd.

In 1839 Miss Mary Todd of Kentucky arrived in Springfield to visit a married sister, Mrs. Edwards. At the instance of his friend Speed, who was also a Kentuckian, Lincoln became a visitor at the Edwards', and before long it was apparent to the observant among those in Springfield that the lively young lady held him captive. Engagements at that time and in that neighborhood were not announced as soon as they were made, and it is not at all impossible that Miss Todd and Mr. Lincoln were betrothed many months before any other than Mrs. Edwards and Mr. Speed knew of it, writes John Gilmer Speed in The Ladies' Home Journal.

At this time, as was the case till Lincoln was elected to the presidency, his one special rival in Illinois was Stephen A. Douglas. Mr. Douglas had more of the social graces than Mr. Lincoln, and it appeared to him that nothing would be more interesting than to cut out his political rival in the affections of the entertaining and lively Miss Todd, and so he paid her court.

A spirited young lady from Kentucky at that time in Illinois would have been almost less than human if she had refused to accept the attentions of the two leading men of the locality. Therefore Miss Todd, being quite human, encouraged Douglas, and again there was what nowadays would have been called a flirtation. This course of action did not spur Lincoln on in his devotion, but made him less ardent, and he concluded, after much self worriment, to break off the engagement, which he did, but at the same interview there were a reconciliation and a renewal of the engagement.

THE REGENT DIAMOND.

The One Precious Stone That Comes Nearest to Being Flawless.

The Regent diamond, while surpassed in size by the Great Mogul and several other well known stones, is really the finest of all, being nearly faultless in form and purity and the most brilliant diamond in the world today.

Its French history dates back to 1717. In that year it was purchased from its English owner, for the French regalia, by the Duke of Orleans, then regent of France, whence its present name. It had previously been known by a name almost as famous.

In 1717 French finances were in a desperate strait. The people were starving, the treasury was nearly exhausted, credit even was lost, yet under the persuasions of the Scotch financier Law and the French Duke of St. Simon the regent of France, hesitating where every monarch of Europe had refused, finally agreed to the price of $675,000.

Greatly to the relief of the duke, his act appealed to the pride of the French people, and instead of condemnation for his extravagance he received their applause. In the light of subsequent events their approval has a touch of the prophetic.

The first prominent appearance of the diamond in the French regalia was in the circlet of the crown made for the coronation of the boy Louis XV, in 1722. After half a century it was again the center of a new crown, that which in 1775 weighed heavy on the head of the young Louis XVI till he cried out in discomfort, "It hurts me!"

Then come 1789 and the fire and blood and fury of the French revolution. —Charles Stuart Pratt in Lippincott's.

The Army of Tramps.

There can be no doubt that the tramp is in a certain sense the maker and chooser of his own career. The writer's experience with these vagrants has convinced him that, though they are almost always the victims of liquor and laziness, fully four-fifths of America's voluntary beggars have begun their wide and restless ways while still in their teens, and have been furthered in their wrong tendencies by unwise treatment applied to them when young.

Year after year, even month after month, trampdom is increased by squads of youths who will soon take and hold the places of their elders, who will naturally drop away with the years. These boyish roadsters are more often illegitimate than lawful children and consequently proper subjects for state care and guardianship. And the fact that every tramp in the United States has spent some part of his youth in a reform school, or, worst of all, in jails, demonstrates that there is a failure somewhere in our system of correction and reformation and makes it necessary and only fair that the sociologist as well as the reformer should know the tramp from boyhood to manhood. Superficial and unsympathetic studies of his character, with shallow theories about remedial measures, have so far failed signally in checking his malign influence upon society.—"How Men Become Tramps," by Josiah Flynt, in Century.

Living on One Food.

We hold that a well devised dietary system does not need frequent change. All do not require to eat the same in amount or kind. Uncooked fruits and nuts suit some. Others live almost entirely on bread and oatmeal, but when the correct diet has been found it is not necessary to change. Animals in a state of nature live on one food throughout their lives.—Vegetarian.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH OF A PROMINENT DRUID.

Ex-Grand Secretary Knarston Killed by a Railway Train in Oakland.

John H. Knarston, Ex-Grand Secretary of the Druids, was run down by a Southern Pacific train in Oakland at 11:20 o'clock last Monday night and killed. The accident was witnessed by Noble Grand Arch Hoag of Santa Rosa, Grand Secretary Mollison of San Francisco and a number of other Druids high up in the order. Noble Grand Arch Hoag says that Mr. Knarston, together with a party of ten or fifteen Druids, was about to return to San Francisco after exemplifying the work in one of the local Groves in Oakland, when the accident occurred which deprived the order of one of its most faithful and enthusiastic workers. The party had just crossed the railway track at Seventh and Market streets, and were standing on the narrow platform when he heard Grand Secretary Mollison exclaim: "Look out!" The next instant an object brushed by him and striking the platform was hurled forward like a rubber ball. One of the Druids present, recognizing it to be a man, seized and dragged him from beneath the rapidly moving wheels of the train. Glancing at the mangled form, the rescuing Druid, who was too late to save, but who prevented the prostrate man from being ground into atoms by the swift-rushing train, exclaimed: "My God! It is Knarston!" His other brothers rushed to the rescue. But too late! His skull had been fractured. He never spoke after being run down and died twenty minutes after, surrounded by the brothers of his order.

Poor Knarston! He was idolized by the members of the order for which he had done so much in the past twelve years build to up. He was well-known to every Druid in Sonoma county and particularly to those of Sonoma Grove, No. 75, whose members have often sat at the banquet board with him, after a lodge meeting to exemplify the work of the order, and passed the time merrily away until the "wee sma' hours of the morn."

The funeral of Brother Knarston will take place in San Francisco to-morrow. A large delegation of Sonoma Druids will attend to participate in the last sad rites of one of the most concsientious Druids of the order.

New Advertisements.

G. H. Hotz's holiday announcement appears in another column. He has just laid in a new stock of dry goods, millinery and fancy articles for the holiday trade which he will sell at San Francisco prices.

Jas. Ruffner announces that he has just purchased a brand new stock of fancy articles especially for the holidays.

F. Clewe's new holiday adv will be found in another column. He has a fine display on his counters and shelves of a new and varied assortment of holiday goods. He is also offering "New Home" and "Ideal" sewing machines at less than they can be bought in San Francisco.

Board of Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular monthly session Monday. The minutes of the previous meeting were read. Supervisors Hall, Hayden, Gray and Thompson were present. Supervisor Joost was reported absent. The day was spent in the consideration of road bills and the following were passed:

J. W. Hall, Fulton district, $290.83; Santa Rosa, $32; Russian River, $28.12.

P. H. Thompson, Sonoma, $186.03; Lakeville. $294.97; Penn's Grove, $170.

E. S. Gray, Knight's Valley, $44; Washington, $59.50; Cloverdale, $202.

E. W. Hayden, Marin, $139.

A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal. had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back. or sale by all dealers.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

COUNTY NEWS.

GLEANED DURING THE PAST WEEK.

The highest point of the Sonoma mountain is just above the G. F. Hooper place, and is 2306 feet above the sea level.

Santa Rosa has a crank named Hitchcock who has just completed a fast of thirty days. His weight was reduced from 200 pounds to 130 during the interval.

The building of an addition to the County Hospital is being agitated in Santa Rosa. It is said the present quarters are in an overcrowded condition and more room is necessary.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Sonoma and Marin Agricultural Society will be held at Petaluma to-day for the purpose of electing seven directors for the ensuing year, taking action in relation to the present indebtedness of the society, and transacting other business as may come before the meeting.

A number of persons living along Russian river have an idea that the ordinance passed by the Board of Supervisors in regard to seine fishing was repealed by the general law passed by the Legislature. This, however, is not the case, and some of those people taking this for granted will find it an expensive amusement.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments for children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieves the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by all dealers.

A Welcome Usher of '96.

The beginning of the new year will have a welcome usher in the shape of a fresh almanac, descriptive of the origin, nature and uses of the national tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Combined with the descriptive matter will be found calendar and astronomical calculations absolutely reliable for correctness, statistics, illustrations, verses carefully selected, and other mental food highly profitable and entertaining. On this pamphlet, published and printed annually by The Hostetter Company, of Pittsburgh, 60 hands are employed in the mechanical department alone. Eleven months are devoted to its preparation. It is procurable free of druggists and country dealers everywhere and is printed in English, German, French, Spanish, Welsh, Norwegian, Holland, Swedish and Bohemian.

NEW TO-DAY.

ECZEMA From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of this disease. I visited Hot Springs and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S.S.S. and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible eczema was gone, not a sign of it left. My general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. I have often recommended S.S.S. and have never yet known a failure to cure.

Garrat Hyatt, the genial foreman of the Senator Fair stock farm, was the guest of the Petaluma Gun Club last Saturday evening at their shooting grounds in the marshes bordering Petaluma creek near Burdell's. He reports having fine sport while the ducks were flying, bagging fourteen sprig. Lawyer Rodgers of Petaluma scored one bird, which City Marshal Frank Collins endeavored to swipe but was caught in the act. A number of fine bags were secured by the members of the club, whose shooting grounds are among the best appointed in the State. The club numbers among its members many of the leading business and professional men of Petaluma.

Glen Ellen Squibs.

J. G. Marcy of Sonoma was in town last Tuesday.

Pile driving along the Chauvet and O'Donnell possessions still continues.

G. H. Potter will entertain the people by a stereoptican show in the Mervyn Hall this evening.

F. M. Luttrell, an employee at the U. S. Mint in San Francisco, visited friends here last Saturday.

Governor Budd and the Trustees of the Home for Feeble Minded Children visited that institution last Tuesday.

Bayard Saville, well but not favorably known in this vicinity, was arrested in Oakland this week for forgery.

Rev. J. Greely of San Jose has been engaged as pastor of the Los Guilicos and Glen Ellen Congregational Churches.

REMINGTON.

Glen Ellen, Dec. 5th, 1895.

Town Improvements.

J. B. Small is erecting a new building on the northeast corner of his lot on Napa street which he will occupy as a carpenter and cabinet shop.

The Methodist Church is being given a new coat of white paint which will greatly improve its appearance.

J. S. Young has moved into his new real estate office adjoining the bank building.

Geo. Breitenbach will erect a building on his recent purchase early in the spring.

The Sisters of the Presentation Convent have recently purchased a portion of the Isabella Much place, extending from the rear of the Convent to Spain street and Second-street East. The new purchase will be used for enlarging the grounds surrounding the Convent.

The Odd Fellows building has been given a new coat of paint and otherwise improved and is now one of the neatest and most attractive edifices in town.

Frank Weems, our enterprising young merchant, has added to his establishment several new and attractive signs.

The Recorder's office in the City Hall has been completed and has been taken possession of by Judge Cheney.

Van Every vs. Maxwell.

The civil suit instituted in the Superior Court of this county by A. J. Van Every to recover the sum of $459.75, principal and interest, due on a promissory note executed by Maxwell several years ago and given to plaintiff for carpenter work, has been decided in favor of Mr. Van Every. Judge Dougherty gave judgment for the full amount sued for.

The Governor Visits the Home.

Governor Budd passed through town on the Donahue train on Tuesday evening last en route to the Home for Feeble Minded, which he inspected on Wednesday. He was much pleased with the manner in which that institution is being conducted by the Superintendent, Dr. A. E. Osborne, than whom no man in the State is better qualified for the peculiar duties devolving upon him in the management of its inmates. All the wards of the big buildings were carefully examined by the Governor, and the only fault he could find was in sufficient ventilation. Steps had already been taken to remedy the defect.

The investigation showed that the buildings were in a clean and healthy condition, and the inmates fared well, but the records in the executive department had been neglected. The same business methods that were in vogue six years ago, when the number of patients were not over a score, are still in force, and though different Legislatures adopted rules governing it, they were never put into effect. The rules were to the effect that the Board should appoint a Superintendent, a Secretary and a Matron, who should have executive control. The other officers would be under the entire direction of the Superintendent. No Secretary was ever appointed, and Dr. Osborne, the Superintendent, filled both positions, though he only drew one salary. A clerk was appointed to assist him, and the office force managed very well when the inmates were few. Now there are nearly five hundred unfortunates within the walls, and the business of the place has far outgrown the system. The books of the clerks told very little of what had become of the supplies after they were received. To remedy the defect the Board, at the suggestion of the Governor, agreed to appoint a Secretary for the institution, who will also act as commissariat, and W. P. Edwards of Petaluma was named for the place.

The Governor was accompanied by F. W. Lougee and several other directors. His visit was a most unostentatious one as he traveled from Tiburon to the Home among the "common herd." The Governor evidently likes his "toddy," as during the trip up he was seen to accompany a friend to the rear of the car and take a nip out of a bottle supposed to contain some good old Bourbon.

Governor Budd, as he ambled through the narrow isle of the coach, remarked to his friend, who no doubt was high up in the councils of the party: "This isn't whisky! It is only a stimulant." Ah, Jim! You are the same old boy of old.

Chapter of Accidents.

Antonio Peter, an Italian aged about 35 years, while hunting rabbits north of town on Friday afternoon of last week, met with an accident that caused him the loss of his right arm. He had just crawled through a barbed-wire fence and in pulling his gun through the fence, muzzle first, the triggers, which were at full cock, caught in the barbed-wire, and the gun was discharged. The load entered the right arm near the shoulder and shattered the bones in a horrible manner. He made his way into town and Dr. Davis was sent for. The flow of blood was stanched and the wounded man was sent to the County Hospital at Santa Rosa the same evening. The next morning the arm was amputated at the shoulder joint by the County Physician.

On Sunday morning, while the eighteen-year old son of J. Breitenstein, residing on the Lowell ranch, was chopping kindling with a sharp hatchet, he cut himself on the back of the left hand. The wound was a bad one and the injured lad bled profusely. He was brought into town for surgical treatment shortly after the accident and his wound was dressed by Dr. Davis.

The little son of A. W. Peterson, whose farm is near Agua Caliente, while at play last Saturday fell on a piece of broken bottle and had one of his wrists badly cut. He was brought into town to have the wound dressed, which was a dangerous one, as it came near severing the main artery in the wrist.

Passed a Confederate Note.

A Confederate five-dollar note was passed upon L. Modini, proprietor of the Garbaldi House, one day this week by a young lad well-known in this community, whose whereabouts at the present time are unknown. The matter has been placed in the hands of an officer and the youngster will no doubt be apprehended and made to explain how he came into possession of the worthless paper. He is supposed to be the dupe of another young man.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

CITY TRUSTEES.

President Seipp Resigns—Other Matters.

At a regular meeting of the City Trustees held last Wednesday evening the following business was transacted:

In the absence of presiding officer Seipp, the Board was called to order by City Clerk Breitenbach, who stated that he had received the written resignation of J. H. Seipp as President of the Board.

Trustee Poppe objected to the Clerk calling the Board to order as he had been chosen President pro tem at a former meeting.

Trustee Poppe then took the chair and the resignation of Trustee Seipp was read and accepted.

On motion of Trustee Schocken, which received a second from Trustee Hartin, the Board proceeded to elect a new presiding officer. Trustee Poppe was thereupon chosen and he declared himself elected.

Two hundred dollars were appropriated for graveling the streets in need of repair.

A petition was read from property owners residing on Broadway praying that that thoroughfare be improved. The petition was referred to the Street Committee.

It was moved by Trustee Hartin that the State Poll tax and the Road Poll tax be refunded to the members of the Sonoma Volunteer Fire Company in good standing So ordered.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

A. J. Van Every	$ 39 00
F. Duhring	3 75
Geo. Spanning	5 00
L. Maffai	50 25
L. Modini	7 50
L. Breitenbach	50
B. P. Norris	17 00
H. Hartin (assigned)	7 00
S Schocken (assigned)	69 25
A. E. Chartrand	30 00
E. J. Robin	15 00
Total	$244 25

The Board then adjourned.

Foolish Litigation.

David Zelinsky of San Francisco has sued Dr. and Mrs. Nordin in the Superior Court of this county to foreclose a mechanics' lien. The suit is the outcome of the foolish litigation between Dr. and Mrs. Nordin, who after spending $30,000 cash in improving the Agua Caliente Springs property were inveigled into a law suit, which many people in this valley believe was instigated for the purpose of breaking them up in their business. Whether these surmises be true or not, it is only a question of time when husband and wife, who were on the high road to prosperity a few months ago, will be pauperized if they do not settle their differences out of court. Shakespear has truthfully said "What fools we mortals be."

A Valuable Farm to be Sacrificed.

A fine Sonoma Valley farm of 36 acres of rich bottom land on Sonoma Creek, highly improved with fruit trees, etc., must be sold before January 1st. In order to make a sale by that time the price for this farm has been reduced from $10,500 to $8,500. This ranch is located a short distance from the depots of two competing lines of railway. On the place is a two-story, nine-room, residence, barns, etc., fine running water and valuable water rights. This is one of the finest opportunities ever offered to secure a fruit farm at a bargain. For further particulars address this office.

The Sonoma Valley Band.

A meeting has been called for next Thursday evening by Mr. Hugh Maxwell, the talented young leader of the Sonoma Valley Band, for the purpose of discussing the proposition of disorganization. For the past six or seven years the band has been the pride and boast of the people of this valley, who will exceedingly regret to learn that such a proposition is being entertained, and whom we are sure will do almost anything that is reasonable to encourage the band boys to keep up their organization. Mr Maxwell has devoted much valuable time in instructing the band boys, who in turn have given their time and money in making the band what it is to-day—one of the best outside of the metropolis. Disorganization at this time would be a great loss to Sonoma Valley, and we sincerely trust that Mr. Maxwell will keep his boys together.

Christmas and New Year Gifts.

Ed. Wegner, the INDEX-TRIBUNE'S oldest advertiser, has recently stocked his store with a fine assortment of goods for Chaistmas and New Years. In making your holiday purchases don't forget to give him a call.

Miss Perry's dancing school is now open in Weyl's Hall Saturday afternoons and evenings. Applications must be made at the Perry residence on Napa street. *

The annual egg crop in this country is something over 900,000,000 dozen eggs, with a value of over $100,000,000.

County Superintendent Davis has received at his office a life diploma of the highest grade for Miss Angelina Chambaud and life diplomas of the grammar grade for Josephine Dows, Mrs. Margaret Young Davis of Santa Rosa, Chas. M. Watson of Guerneville and Emma Branch of Korbels. They are signed by Governor Budd, President Kellogg of the State University and others high in educational matters in the State. They entitle the holders to teach in any school in the State and they are good for life.

A beautiful effect may be obtained at a Christmas dinner by having a large low bowl of holly in the center of the table, and by laying a border of the same plant around the table about fifteen inches from the edge. The lamps or candles may have shades of white tissue paper, covered with dusted spangles to represent snow, and having a wreath of holly for their only decoration. The effect of the table is entirely that of winter and "Chrismas cheer."—December Ladies' Home Journal.

One of the most beautiful rainbows we have ever seen spanned the heavens last Saturday.

A stylish costume for a young lady has a skirt of old rose and blue changeable peau de soie. The waist is of rose and white striped silk, gathered full into a velvet collar and belt. There are very wide epaulets of velvet and deep cuffs, the sleeve tops being enormous puffs, that fall low over the elbows.

Miss Emily Kearney took the afternoon train last Sunday for the metropolis.

A carload of grapes shipped from Martinez to New York last week sold for $1800 gross—one of the best sales of the season.

G. H. Hotz made a business trip to the metropolis Tuesday.

Never store fruit jars in the silver closet. It has been discovered that one rubber ring around the neck of a fruit jar will discolor a whole closet full of silver ware. To keep silver from tarnishing place it near a lump of gum camphor.

J. F. Farnsworth, the well-known fruit buyer, left for Sacramento last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wright of San Francisco have purchased the H. C. Manuel place, recently foreclosed by W. B. Waldron.

The merest dash of cinnamon in a cup of chocolate after it is poured is said to add a piquant and undistinguishable flavor.

Readers, your attention is called to the attractive bargains offered in our advertising columns this week.

T. Oliveria, one of Sonoma's enterprising merchants, visited San Francisco Tuesday.

The wealthy people of China never make their tea in teapots, which are only used by the poor; in good Chinese society tea is always made in cups, a small quantity of the leaves being placed in the bottom of each cup and hot water poured in.

A. Pinelli returned from a short business visit to the city Tuesday evening.

Black silk may be renovated by a thorough sponging with stale beer. Then place between newspapers and press with a hot iron.

Chas. Champlin, teacher of the Watmaugh School, returned from a several days visit to the metropolis Tuesday evening.

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, DEC. 7th, 1895.

THE TELEGRAPHIC "THIRTY."

How the Cipher, Which Is Now Universal, Had Its Origin.

I attended a funeral the other day where there was a lovely flower piece with the figures "30" in the center. The deceased had been familiar all his life with that signal, having been connected with telegraph or newspaper business for nearly 30 years, and yet I doubt if ever he or any one who contributed to the flower piece knew or dreamed how 30 came to mean anything, especially finis, or the end.

As a part in telegraph history I will explain how this signal, which has come to mean so much, had its origin. Like a great many other expressions, it was started accidentally, as it were. In the infancy of the telegraph business dispatches were sent paid or collect, many of them abbreviated in telegraphing, and all newspaper dispatches were not only abbreviated, but sent collect. There were no news agencies then, as now, and papers had friends in all the towns, who were authorized to send them dispatches to be called for.

Every beginner in the art of telegraphy was given a book of abbreviations and signals, which he had to commit to memory and practice till he became expert in their use. Among those signals that of 30 was found, and it meant "collect pay at the other end." Whether a news dispatch or common business message, if not prepaid, the signal 30 was attached. As all press dispatches were paid for where received, they all had 30 at the end. So when news agencies began their work the signal was retained, for they were still paid for where received.

This signal has come in these days to be a universal finis to all press dispatches, private, special and general, and a secondary meaning, or perhaps, better, a legendary meaning attaches itself as "the end" and is a proper and beautiful expression of the finis of a telegraph operator or any other person.

It well may be a signal to the spiritual dispatch of a human soul to the great center of rewards and as a notice to estimate its value when received and "collect pay at the other end."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PURITANICAL LAWS.

How They Round Up Delinquent Debtors In Cultured Boston.

"Just wait till I catch him in Boston. Then I'll make him come to the center," remarked an angry man the other day while roasting a theatrical manager who owed him a few hundred dollars for services rendered. I told him that I supposed he would then clap the debtor into the Charles Street jail. "That's just what I will do if I ever catch him there, you bet." And then the mad actor explained how easy it was to get even with people of that sort in the Hub. No matter what the debt, nor where or how it was contracted, all one has to do is to enter a complaint and that settles it. If one who owes is averse to notoriety, he'll hardly take the poor debtor's oath, which releases him for a certain number of years, but does not wipe out his obligations, but will linger in the bastile until he can interest his friends or realize on his collateral and settle.

I know several New Yorkers who have run against creditors in the bean burg and have suffered. Some joke about their incarceration and the questions put to them during the process of administering the poor debtor's oath, but most all agree that the Boston law is a puritanical provision that should be materially amended. Bostonians who are dodging process servers are agitating a change that will permit them to pay up on the installment plan instead of being forced to cash in the full amount or remain a guest of the Charles street hotel. If such a law was on the New York statute books and was enforced here—well, the Tombs or some other prison would be holding hundreds who now look as if they owned the town instead of merely owing the townspeople. —New York Letter in Pittsburg Dispatch.

KIDNEY.

E. W. JOY COMPANY—Gentlemen: I have suffered from kidney trouble for two or three years. I would have to get up in the night to void my urine from ten to fifteen times My sleep was disturbed and I became very thin and nervous. No appetite; bowels constipated. I have taken two bottles and gained fifteen pounds Sleep well. Have to get up about three times during night, and am very much better in every respect. Will continue to take your Vegetable Sarsaparilla, for believe it will entirely cure me.

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

IT'S THE SIMPLE, TRIVIAL INVENTIONS THAT YIELD FORTUNES, such as the "car-window" which can be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, "sauce-pan," "collar-button," "nut-lock," "bottle-stopper," and a thousand other little things that most any one can find a way of improving; and these simple inventions are the ones that bring largest returns to the author. Try to think of something to invent.
IT IS NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.
Patents taken out through us receive special notice in the "National Recorder," published at Washington, D. C., which is the best newspaper published in America in the interests of inventors. We furnish a year's subscription to this journal, free of cost, to all our clients. We also advertise, free of cost, the invention each month which wins our $150 prize, and hundreds of thousands of copies of the "National Recorder," containing a sketch of the winner, and a description of his invention, will be scattered throughout the United States among capitalists and manufacturers, thus bringing to their attention the merits of the invention.

Poisoning by Tinned Food.

Some light is thrown by The Lancet upon the mysterious cases of poisoning by tinned food which from time to time are reported. They are believed to be due to neglect of the caution against eating tinned foods that have been exposed to the air for some time after being opened. The exact manner in which poisonous substances, technically known as "ptomaines," are generated so rapidly is not known with certainty, but the fact that they are produced in sufficient quantity to cause very grave symptoms of poisoning have been brought out in a multitude of instances. In one well known case the first half of the contents of a tin of lobster was consumed with no ill effect, but the rest a few days afterward proved extremely poisonous. It is suggested that as a safeguard manufacturers might label the tins with some such notice as "The contents of this tin are perfectly wholesome when eaten fresh from the tin and afford good food, but the public is advised not to expose the contents for any length of time to the injurious influences of the atmosphere." The Lancet writer even goes so far as to suggest that some such warning might be insisted on by the legislature.—London News.

Where We Are Going.
